MEETING ANNOUNCEMENT

Time: November 4, Thursday, 6 p.m. (Drinks, 5:30)

Place: Commodore Inn, 24th and Dodge

Speaker: S. Francisco Sionil José, Publisher,
Solidaridad Publishing House, Manila

Subject: "The Future of U.S.-Philippine Relations"

S. José has been described by perceptive observers as one of the most interesting and influential critics of the current Philippine leadership among the non-communist left. His monthly, Solidaridad, has great impact among Catholic and other non-communist liberals and leftists. S. José has advanced insights and provoked lively discussions at the Council on Foreign Relations in New York and other Committees and universities.

Among his other positions he has been managing editor of the "Asia Magazine" in Hong Kong, a Colombo Plan information officer, and an employee of the U. S. Embassy--Manila in the Information Service. He is author of many learned papers and two novels. He also serves as the Philippine correspondent of the "London Economist."

Dinner arrangements are the usual. Make reservations for yourself and guests by returning the enclosed post-paid card. The cost will be $5.00 per person. If you change your plans after mailing the card, please call by Thursday morning: 553-4506 or 536-2836.

Our next meeting is tentatively scheduled for Wednesday, December 1. Our guest will be Mr. Jerome "Jerry" Vanice who will have just returned to Omaha after being a development consultant in East Africa. In the new year our first meeting is scheduled for January 21 with His Excellency Dr. Nuri Eren, Permanent Representative of Turkey to the United Nations.

Sincerely,

Ken
